Solé On The Ocean is one of the newest oceanfront properties to open on Sunny Isles Beach. The highly anticipated condo-tel is officially launching their weekend pool series by hosting a rock 'n' roll fashion show featuring "Betty Bangs" by Beth Gerharts, drink specials by Bacardi, gourmet grill bites and live tunes by The Hep Cat Boo Daddies on May 30, 2009 from 12 to 6 p.m.

Solé's beautiful pool deck, literally steps from the sand, will turn into a runway to present Betty Bangs' one-of-a-kind bathing suits. The Betty Bangs collection is made from legendary rock band branded vintage tees and adorned with Swarovski® crystals. The Betty Bangs Swimwear collection is a colorful and nostalgic trip down rock memory lane with major sex appeal. Each suit is individually stamped with a limited edition number to identify its authenticity and is hand-cut to accentuate a woman's body in all the right places.

"I grew up loving rock 'n roll and all its defiance," Gerharts says. "My suits are the epitome of a rock 'n roll rebel from the unconventional materials used to the raw cut of each suit – this collection is the perfect blend of rock and chic to create a line that looks hot, feels sexy and commands attention."

Guests will also enjoy the original music of The Hep Cat Boo Daddies. The "Boo Daddies" are known for their raw-edge and unique style incorporating a wide variety of musical genres including blues, rock, surf, funk and rock-a-billy. Their sounds are appealing to a wide variety of music lovers who are ready for something with a rock 'n' roll twist!

Solé also makes the perfect weekend escape from the hot South Florida sun, with its newly decorated pool area featuring plush lounge beds and chairs, additional canopy umbrellas for extra shading and the Atlantic Ocean just a skip away. Guests can grab a bite to eat with a summer "lunch box" menu featuring club sandwiches, vegetable and fruit platters, healthy wraps and an assortment of chips options courtesy of neighboring gourmet staple, Epicure Market. In addition, Solé's grill will be offering delicious sliders and skewers for everyone to enjoy!

Pool Series Launch: Saturday, May 30th - 12 to 6 p.m.
Betty Bangs Fashion Show: 3 p.m.
