Succumb to the Gravitational Pool

BY RAINA MCLEOD

If our fellow countrymen wayyy up north knew that we Miamians weren't taking advantage of our abundance of pools, sun and sand - we may have another Civil War on our hands. Two weeks ago it was SNOWING up there and we had the nerve to shiver about 65 degrees! We'll force them to forgive you if you traipse to Sunny Isles and park your caboose poolside at Solé on the Ocean. This oceanfront and absolutely fab condo-tel is rolling out Alba, a weekly pool party series where DJ Baby Dré provides the soundtrack, Epicure Market supplies the grub, and locals bring plenty of the sexy. You won't find any Spring Break-ers gone wild out here - just two-for-one cocktails and a sexy/serene environment. And the pool...go on in - the water's fine.
